Avoid Extreme Views.

Extreme views are never just; something always turns up which disturbs the calculations formed upon this data. —Disraeli.

Must Have Something to Feed On.

Affection can withstand very severe storms of strife, but not a long polar frost of downright indifference. Love will subsist on wonderfully little hope, but not altogether without it.

Poor Papa!

"Father, you took a science degree at college, didn't you?" "Yes, my boy; I spent two years on science." "When you look in a mirror the left side of your face appears to be the right side and the right side seems to be the left. The looking-glass reverses it, doesn't it?" "Yes, my lad." "Then, why, papa, doesn't it reverse the top and bottom of your face in the same way?"

After denouncing the profiteers, some people proceed to lay in twice as much of supplies as they need, thus helping send prices higher.

THE WHOLE FAMILY praises "Reiner's Christopher Coal." The cook says: "It is good to bake with." Johnny says: "I do NOT have to carry out SO MANY ashes." Father says: "DINNER is always READY ON TIME." Mother says: "IT'S CLEAN COAL." We say, "It is the BEST COAL MINED." Try it today. Only $7.00 per ton. Good for any stove in the house. Reiner Coal Company, 59th & Wood Sts. Prospect 7558.

A Chicago judge urges the whipping post for automobile speeders, but if their hides are as tough as their consciences it wouldn't hurt 'em any.

The Hour-Glass.

Instead of being obsolete the hour-glass in various forms is a present-day necessity. An authority points out that for such purposes as trimming, hardening and tempering heats in twist drill manufacture, where seconds or minutes must be gauged accurately, nothing serves like the hour-glass with the right amount of sand.

There is a growing feeling that if the automobile laws are not more carefully regarded, it may be necessary to round up the motorists every Monday morning and fine them $10 and costs each on general principles.

And further progress is reported on the high price question, when the investigators send out for a supply of cigars.

For every two strikes settled about three more seem to be declared.

"Henrys" and "Harrys"

While I know one Harry who was so christened with disregard for the more dignified Henry and there may be other instances of the kind, there seems to be little doubt that the latter is the parent of the former name England has always called its King Henrys "Harry." During the reign of Henry VI, who succeeded to the throne in 1422, there was a piece of money coined called the Harry noble, and in the time of Henry VIII there was a tiny coin named the Harry groat "In Jerusalem shall Harry die" said Henry IV.—Chicago Daily News

Not Appreciated.

A tourist was being driven through a picturesque glen in Scotland and while his companions went into raptures over the wild weird, awe inspiring features of the place he yawned over his cigar and newspaper "Don't you like the glen sir?" the driver asked at a particularly striking spot "Why," grunted the tourist "I suppose it's all right but I can't see any of the scenery for those wretched hills!"
